

Call for proposals: fresh – Tanztage Braunschweig 2015

Be »fresh« in 2015!

The second edition of »fresh – Tanztage Braunschweig«, our festival for contemporary dance and performance, will take place from June 17th to June 21st 2015. We will turn Staatstheater Braunschweig again into a sizzling place for Contemporary Dance, Dance Theatre and Performance.

Jan Pusch, since 2010 Artistic Director of Staatstheater Tanz Braunschweig and his team of curators are looking forward to invite dancers, performers and choreographers to present their latest creations premiered in season 2014/2015.

From newcomers to established, whether you are a free-lancer, have your own company or working in a National Theatre – all are welcome to send in their proposals.

Your work would be shown in Kleines Haus (stage approx. 9m wide x 10m deep / open stage / black dance floor/ black box) in a mixed evening on June 20th 2015. Please note that your piece should last between 15 to 30 minutes and it should include maximum seven dancers.

Please send your proposal as video of a live performance via vimeo or You Tube link. You can also send a video file via www.wetransfer.com

E-Mail us to fresh@staatstheater-braunschweig.de

Have also a look in our FAQs!

Deadline is March 1st 2015

Sincerely yours,

Jan Pusch and his »fresh« Team

FAQs

length and cast

The duration of your piece should be between 15 and 30 minutes and it should include maximum seven dancers.

accommodation and travel costs and per diems

For invited productions accommodation and travel costs will be provided. Per diems will be paid for two days.

fees

Fees are negotiated according to length and number of performances.

schedule

June 19th arrival in Braunschweig
June 20th stage set up, technical run and performance
June 21st departure

technical set up

The individual set up time will be between 30 and 60 minutes. All technical set up will take place in the morning of your performance day. A technical run of the complete program will follow in the afternoon.